A movie poster for "Twin Flames". It features a dark, ethereal scene with two silhouetted figures standing facing each other. They are framed by the outstretched wings of a large bird, possibly a phoenix, against a background of green and orange clouds. A circular refresh or loading icon is centered over the figures. At the top of the poster, the title "Twin Flames" is displayed in white, bold letters. Below the title is a quote in white script font: "What's real, can't be seen and what can be seen.... isn't real." The bottom of the poster includes a standard video player interface with controls (play, back, forward), a progress bar showing 31:00, and icons for HD, volume, and settings.

Only the bridge was too short, and the spirit was crossing too slowly.

So the man paid for a new bridge for Michelle's spirit in a new realm that would be 10 miles longer.

But while he was waiting for their spirits to cross, the man made a devastating discovery online:

Leave a shiny feather, so white & shiny that even the creator gets inspired...but don't you worry, ugly feathers are equally welcomed and appreciated here as long as they don't bother other angels ^_~

Sam Hart

The story is developing really nice!! Love the character growth and the drama. Over all really nice creativity #teamEleven

OMG! Hero finally made the move!! Waiting desparately for the next chap! <3 <3

John Wells

Nice Job. Still has a room for improvement though. #noharshfeelings

Simran Kaur

One word "MIND BLOWN" (ok these are two words, my bad XD)

About

Welcome to my bubble, an epiphany a.k.a ELEVEN FEATHERS™. Why 'ELEVEN FEATHERS' ?! In order to get to the bottom of 'why this name' you need to read the book Twin Flames for a better explaination.

At the same time ELEVEN FEATHERS™ is an e-platform for original graphic novels to be sold in the form of e-books of different genres like drama, fantasy, thriller etc. in the foreground and a little wish to fix the planet by healing Mother Nature in the background.

Be very gentle while selecting the sounds
for all the clickables and buttons.
The sounds should be mild and give a modern scientific feel as well
(should not be noisy or annoying)

Cursor should always turn into a hand while hovering anything clickable
